From the Warden of Rhodes House

Dear Rhodes Finalist

Congratulations on being a Finalist for the 2018 Rhodes Scholarship. The competition at the final level is always very close and it is a great testament to your tremendous talent and achievements to have made it this far. To acknowledge your accomplishment, we are pleased to include with this letter a Rhodes Finalist certificate. You will also be entered into our long-standing register of Finalists.

Oxford University takes a great interest in Rhodes Scholars and Rhodes Finalists, and we would also like to make you aware of other opportunities for funded graduate study at Oxford. There are a number of outstanding programmes and scholarships, for which we believe you would be a strong candidate. The best way to learn about opportunities is to visit the Course Guide on the graduate admissions website (www.graduate.ox.ac.uk/courses). Here you will find a suite of pages for each of the 300+ graduate courses covering all you need to know, such as the selection criteria, places available and application deadlines.

The Rhodes is only one source of funding for Oxford; a number of other scholarships are available for all of the graduate degree programmes at Oxford. You can learn more by visiting the Oxford Graduate Scholarship website: www.graduate.ox.ac.uk/scholarships. For over two thirds of Oxford's graduate scholarships, you need do no more than apply for your course place by the relevant January deadline and you will be automatically considered.

For someone with your energy, commitment, and credentials, there are innumerable opportunities at Oxford and beyond. We wish you much success and happiness in the next steps in your career.

Best regards

Charles Conn
